

Full Speed Ahead, Unchain The Chained

look in the mirror
look into your own eyes
do you see what I see
do you see our fight

I don't fight for my country
I fight for my class
my eyes reflect the street what's really going on I'm told by common sense my eyes reflect reality

do you see the light
the end of the tunnel

you shouldn't play with the fire we'll kindle the heat
my eyes reflect the rage
the die is cast
we'll unchain the chained
my eyes reflect resistance

unchain the chained!
