

Fully Down, Never Enough

Hello friend it's been a while
Since I could talk to you
You lost touch with who you used to be
And to my dismay

Thought you'd never give it up
The choice was yours who am I to judge
I wish you luck

It's never enough
Until you give it all you've got
It's never enough to say you're sorry
Did you think our lives were just a game
There's nothing left to say

How did we go
From handshakes to heartaches
We'll never know
Whatever happened to the confidence you had
Take the blinders off your eyes and f**king see the truth
