

Fundisha, Daddy

So many times, i sit around i think about how much i wanted you to be closer to me there for me to talk to, get advice, hold me, love me tell me everything will be alright you're in for a long, for a cry, for a try to get anybody just didn't try to be my reality so can you please tell me why it never happened this way

(Chorus)

I just don't understand why you couldn't care for me (noo) i just don't understand why you couldn't love me (meeeeeee) i just don't understand why you couldn't be there for me i just don't understand (ohh) tell me, tell me

As i got older i searched for a found it in the wrong people realize i never knew love by a man wanted to learn from you, so i'd know what to do what to say how to feel, when it's real have a blame blessing to find the man upstairs to care for me, to love me, be there for me he lead me and took me by the hand my father never forsaked me he told me not to put all my trust in a man, man

(Chorus)

You said you love me and you called me your rising star you said you sorry, do you need it, i need to know if this is from the heart oh how i love you, oh how i need you to be inside my life da da da da daaaaa i just don't understand

(Chorus 4x)
