

Funeral For A Friend, I Am The Arsonist

And the scars he will leave
And the pain he inflicts
Will burn out over time
Make us stand out of line

And the ash will break upon the shore
Just like you, you will break upon the shoreline
Upon the shoreline

If the timing is right
We'll make sure to be seen
And the weight we will bare
In the home we are safe
Are we safe?

For a taste, just a simple kiss
The way you bend before the break and
The way my throat would feel
I'm scared of failure

It's our plan, strike a match
And lets burn down this place
It's our plan, strike a match
and lets burn down this place
It's our plan, strike a match
and lets burn down this place
burn down this place

For a taste, just a simple kiss
The way you bend before the break and
The way my throat would feel
I'm scared of failure

For a taste, just a simple kiss
The way you bend before the break and
The way my throat would feel
I'm scared of

And in confidence
They fall bleeding
And if for me
You'll exist forever

And in confidence
They fall bleeding
And if for me
You'll exist forever
You'll exist forever
You'll exist forever
Exist forever

Forever
Forever
