

Funeral For A Friend, Your Revolution

They stand to fight for nothing
And show how stupid we've become
As fortune favours only
Those who care too much to see

It will never be okay
If Some will say

We stand to fight for nothing
So close your eyes and stay away
But don't believe their headlines
They poison our minds every day

It will never be the same
With purpose buried everyday
And lies that lead you to the grave
As Some will say,

And it will never be okay
As some will say,
With purpose buried everyday
As some will say,
lies that lead you to the grave
As some will say...
your revolution is a joke
...As I will say
