

Funkadelic, We Hurt Too

Just because it's said that a man is not supposed to cry

Just because we conceal what we feel when it hurts deep down inside

Why don't they realize that it's just a disguise to hide the way that we feel?
We hurt too
This is true

why don't they see through this pretending of happiness?
They are really some tears and when they say goodbye we will drown on the inside by those same little tears

And know this is true that the man can make her blue he made me and he made you

This is true
We hurt too
we hurt too

There is no difference we're just like you it's the same laughing and crying loving and dying that we do So remember every day as you pass along life's way what I said to you that because you see no tears it's not happiness I feel when you say we're through Sugar it's hard that you find with my faith in you denied that he really loves you

Yes it's true
we hurt too
