

Funker Vogt, Babylon

After all the wars
We are reunited in Babylon
We have learned from the past
This is our final chance
After all the wars
Destruction finally left behind
The old cities are all gone
Babylon this is your time

Chorus:
Here we are the sole survivors
Escaped all the slave drivers
Reunited at the edge of dawn
A new society is reborn

Babylon for a second time
A new start for our generation
After all these struggles here
We have reached our destination

Chorus:
Here we are the sole survivors
Escaped all the slave drivers
Reunited at the edge of dawn
A new society is reborn
