

Furthermore, Deliriously Cold

I am deliriously cold hearted
Maybe I mean cold
Emotionally carrying a tote bag
And letting my hope drag in a trail behind me

Wow!

This is domestic traveling and I don't mean to be unraveling
My ball of problems all over your leaning shoulder

Wow!

Deliriously colder

Wow!

Why does philosophy eat philosophy? And I'll sloppily have a talk with me.

Hey!

I probably have a lot to see (Wow!) and nothing to say (Now!) in an irregular way (Hey!).

But that's just enough about me, let's talk about me,

Hanging out with a girl named Sally (speaking of)

But my love's a party of one.

At least I'm stable without any fun, like running in circles, or running in squares,

Or visiting Twin Earth where green is blue, but who cares?

Not I, said the simple sentence, which in a sense is saying "Pop rock is not dead."

I am deliriously cold hearted

Maybe I mean cold, emotionally

(This is serious, so serious, this is serious, so serious, it's serious, serious
cause I forgot how to have fun again.)

The sky's unlimited, they got used up.

He's her guinea pig, must be true love.

And oh, sure, I know you're so hardcore.

Involved in all of the social lightweights

Good flight rates, to find dates, fifty states, which creates many breaks and hearts ache, double take may remake a marriage great

Wow!

Spontaneous to fake you (Out!)

He or she should take him or her (Out!)

And discuss why there is no (Us!)

And shoot the breeze while there's no (We!)

You will see thrills in our fantasies, but too much time kills in La La Land

In demand of supply, independent without knowing (Why bother?)

I am deliriously cold hearted

Maybe I mean cold, emotionally

(This is serious, so serious, this is serious, so serious, it's serious, serious
cause I forgot how to have fun again.)

I can't seem to or want to stop

I got to hand down some strange genes down to my handsome son, or lovely daughter

Who are at this time just a thought in the back of my mind, I ought not to yet

The thought's unstoppable, probable, profitable

In every way except my pocket book

Bearable, abominable, comi-comical, possible cause is jellyfish, random

Pandemonium only when freedom is seen as just for your enjoyment

Furthermore is for my enjoyment

Furthermore is for your enjoyment

I am deliriously cold hearted

Maybe I mean cold, emotionally

(This is serious, so serious, this is serious, so serious, it's serious, serious
cause I forgot how to have fun again.)
