

Furthest Drive Home, I Pray Cruel

A moment of light slowly sets on the horizon,
The usual suspects that lead you a stray
But we shed our skin and grown new lives.
Ill give up and go cause she wont know,
Just give up and go cause she won't know.
Your lifted up high with no control its a turbulent time.
So let the love roar down,
Let the love roar down,
Let the love roar down,
Let the love roar back down your throat.
Leave this to imagination.
The reality of the situation has no real sensation.
Oh oh, so let the mind run wild,
Just live a dream and
Give up and go cause she wont know,
Just give up and go cause she won't know.
Your lifted up high with no control its a turbulent time.
So let the love roar down,
Let the love roar down,
Let the love roar down,
Let the love roar back down your throat.
Your lifted up high with no control its a turbulent time.
So let the love roar down,
Let the love roar down,
Let the love roar down,
Let the love roar... down
