

Fury In The Slaughterhouse, Eleonore

oh Eleonore
you came the long way home coming with a dream and going back alone
oh Eleonore
you have left this place so there's no warm embrace just a short hello
then turn around and go
oh Eleonore

oh Eleonore friends are hard to find and you've left yours behind you don't know where to stay but that's the price you pay
oh Eleonore
it shouldn't bother me
you wanted to be free I've known it before since you've closed the door

and if you turn around you see that there is no one else but me I guess we both know what's best so forget about the rest

oh Eleonore
