Fury In The Slaughterhouse, Everything I Did it was the calm before the storm when we met we've saved our lifes and lost our hearts instead we've lost our consciousness lost everything we had I thought I got you when I had you in my bed everything I did was wrong and now you're gone

and now you're gone
and I was hoping, I was waiting, I was calling out your name and I was crying with your picture in the rain

I've told you fifty times a day that I love you I knew you won't believe a word but it was true I've lost my friends and they all warned me cause they knew that I was running deaf and blind into the blue everything I did was wrong...
