

Fury In The Slaughterhouse, Fools

"good morning, sit down!"

don't sing anybody's anthem till you know what's on his mind keep the little grey ones working don't believe them deaf and blind

ask them questions
ask them questions
where when who and why shut up yo mama tells ya shut up yo mama tells ya too shut up yo teacher tells ya and you're gonna be their fool

and when you ask them too much they mostly answer with a sigh and if you do it too directly you won't get a real reply

ask them questions...

shut up...

"sit down!"
