

Fury In The Slaughterhouse, Moon For Sale

Yesterday was a brilliant day cause I bought you the moon I sent it off with a letter ,love and i hope youll get it soon it was an all inclusive deal with angels and with stars and I know that his velvet light will cover all your scars

Let his light, let his lovelight shine on you close your eyes, think of me that is all that I want you to do here I sit at my window love watch the moonlight and feel blue and with me everybody sees what I just bought for you with every hour I think of you and every star I count I feel , that Im happy with what Ive found
