

Fury In The Slaughterhouse, Then She Said

I saw her in one of those cafe houses
Being myself so near
And thought never that nice things hurt
And all ended here
Click, click, click said the man
I remember him so well
He said "come on, you got to be careful
Cause her heaven could be your hell"

Then she said....then she said
And I dream that she someday might come back

P.S. are her initials and
Sometimes they gonna make me cry
But I don't believe that this is the reason
That I sing P.S. goodbye
5,6,7,8,9,10 this is o.k.with me
And I cry later then
And I don't believe that all colours are gone
Cause the rest is grey and this is better than none

Then she said..... then she said
And I dream that she someday might come back
Then she said
She said rock'n roll is really dead
Then she said
You're never leaving this head
