

Future Funk Squad, Towards The Sun

I can't watch you anymore
Sweeping your emotions of the floor
I gave you all I had inside
Excuse while I still have pride
I'll take my coat
The keys are by the door
Routine has left me feeling numb
I don't relate to the person I've become
Wrap it up in my old skin
It's not as cold as it was within
Don't look back and head towards the sun
See the love you gave
It was so damn hard
It was you I was trying to save
It was so damn hot
So damn hot
Always running back
Thinking you were the one
Now I'm heading back
Towards the sun
Towards the sun
