

Future, Heart In Pieces

Yeah, it's just me and me, uh
I don't trust these niggas, no, it's just me and me, yeah
Uh, and these boys ain't seein' me (Ayy)
No, it still didn't work when you tried bein' me (Escomoe freezin')

I been right for so long
I don't need nothin', never doin' no wrong
Broke nigga can't get me out of my zone
Told that girl just to leave me alone
'Cause I do way better when I'm on my own
I don't know what she gon' do when I'm gone
She left my heart in pieces, now it's torn
I know that I'm never coming back home

She left my heart in pieces, now it's torn
I swear that my heart, it probably need bandages
No, I can't do nothin' with a lil' Ghost
I had to go and just get me a Phantom, bitch
She said I'm hot like a motherfucking candlestick
Don't need the lighter, bitch, I get the candle lit
When you get money, don't even know what family is
I am so famous, don't look where the camera is
Hate when they always take pictures of me
Paparazzi always following me
I'm givin' motivation to my niggas that's locked down watchin' TMZ
I can not tell none of these niggas what I got goin' on
'Cause they might tell on me
Just to get my old flow back, I had to take some DMT
And I know you got a man, but I treat you equally
And you know I got a girl, but you know that cheaters cheat
Said I'm a dawg, she said "Me too", girl, walk on your knees
She said that she like the way I dress, I do it Japanese
Boy, I take care of your main girl, ain't no askin' me
Only thing that I can say, that your girl's a nasty freak
Make her-make her ride it slow, yeah, bring it back for me
Every time that she's on that pole, yeah, it's the ass for me, uh

I been right for so long
I don't need nothin', never doin' no wrong
Broke nigga can't get me out of my zone
Told that girl just to leave me alone
'Cause I do way better when I'm on my own
I don't know what she gon' do when I'm gone
She left my heart in pieces, now it's torn
I know that I'm never coming back home

I know you turn me on
Throw a nigga backend knowin' it's just for me
It's the way she ride that pole, yeah, it's that ass for me
Could be your showoff and I like it, I love it, personally
It's about levelin' up, bezelin' up, another clarity
It's about windin' you up and then baggin' you up
And I'm doing it thoroughly, yeah
I do it thoroughly, too international (International)
Type of nigga make a bitch bank increase, yeah
Cartier frames on the cheek, yeah
Hand-made stitch Japanese
Drive the bitch truck 'cause it's rich ice cream (Rich as ice cream)
Private party on the daily, makin' love in a Mercedes
Concert started, got a few faded
Ain't playin' with the Ferrari, these bitches too faded
Ain't nowhere to park it, I done ran out of space
Tell me "Go to Mars", but I'm feelin' outer space
If the money get marked, then it could be traced

Time to be real, bitch, you can't betray
Keep the shit real, gotta make shit shake
Gotta turn up now, can't make no mistake
Gotta push more weight, get you back in shape
She ain't got no ways, I'ma find her a way
Find a location, then relocate
Somewhere off of the ocean, they can't find no trace

I been right for so long
I don't need nothin', never doin' no wrong
Broke nigga can't get me out of my zone
Told that girl just to leave me alone
'Cause I do way better when I'm on my own
I don't know what she gon' do when I'm gone
She left my heart in pieces, now it's torn
I know that I'm never coming back home

Diamonds fallin' on you like confetti, baby
That's gon' mean a hater gon' have somethin' to say
All I ever got was fake love
All I ever got was fake love
That's the type of shit that make me cold
That's what make me cold
That's what make me cold
