

Fuzzbubble, Bliss

i've been alone
and i've been thinking about my life
and all its idiosyncrasies (idiot-secrecies?)
needed someone to blame it was always myself
never really imagined
it was somebody else
yeah

i don't want to fight
but everyone is wrong
and i am right
i'm tired of the world
and all this plight
coz everyone is crazy
but i'm alright

i've been outside and i've been listening (listening listening) they criticize
it's all just pissing in the river to me show me something you have that I don't really need show me something you know that I don't wanna hear oh yeah

why should i resign
to everybody else's warped design
so take your bigger road
and i'll take mine
yeah everyone is crazy yeah

yeah everyone is crazy
