(G)I-DLE, HWAA

As if in the dead of winter
The time has completely frozen
Which seems to be left by the cruel world
The darkness deepens

Shall break out From the endless season with no promise Shall erase The scars solely burnt From the days we were not in love

I shall ignite a fire So that my tears dwelling inside Won't live any longer

I shall make a fire A bigger fire To win back spring that i've lost

The cold wind And the heart covered in white snow May please melt completely When teh morning comes

Light up a fire

Fire (HWAA)
Burn burn
Fire (HWAA)
Shal bloom a flower
Fire (HWAA)
Burn burn
Fire (HWAA)
Shal bloom a flower
