

Gabbie Hanna, Honestly

White lies but they're getting dark
Blurred lines but they're getting clearer
Just tell the truth, hey, it's not that hard
You call me crazy, so am I crazy?
Your words don't hold any weight
I can't seem to get a straight answer
Don't trust you but who's to blame?
I think you're crazy but am I crazy?

Got me second guessing everything you say
Thinking that I know you but you're really a stranger
Doing what you gotta do to get your way
You're reckless and selfish and you can't help it

Say you're talking to me honestly
But you're lying to me constantly, oh
All the bullshit, I don't need it
And honestly I don't believe it, nah
Say you're talking to me honestly
But I don't want your dumb apology, no
Say you're sorry, you don't mean it
Sorry but I don't believe it, nah

Say too much but it's not enough
Got me wondering, what all are you hiding?
Did you lie when you called it love?
Or am I crazy?
Somebody save me

Got me second guessing everything you say
Thinking that I know you but you're really a stranger
Doing what you gotta do to get your way
You're reckless and selfish and you can't help it

Say you're talking to me honestly
But you're lying to me constantly, oh
All the bullshit, I don't need it
And honestly I don't believe it, nah
Say you're talking to me honestly
But I don't want your dumb apology, no
Say you're sorry, you don't mean it
Sorry but I don't believe it, nah

Don't know what's reality
Make me question my sanity, oh
Don't know what's reality
Am I losing my sanity?

Say you're talking to me honestly
But you're lying to me constantly, oh
All the bullshit, I don't need it
And honestly I don't believe it, nah
Say you're talking to me honestly
But I don't want your dumb apology, no
Say you're sorry, you don't mean it
Sorry but I don't believe it, nah

Say you're talking to me honestly (I don't need it)
But you're lying to me constantly, oh (I don't believe it, no)
Say you're talking to me honestly (I don't need it)
But you're lying to me constantly, oh (I don't believe it, no)
Say you're talking to me honestly
But you're lying to me constantly
Say you're talking to me honestly

But you're lying to me constantly
