

Gabbie Hanna, Satellite

I'm surrounded by stars
But they don't hear me wishin'
It's funny how a crowded room
Can feel so damn alone
They can hear my mind
Or maybe they're just not listenin'
So i remind mysef
I'm better off on my own

Been standin' on the edge for way too long
Just waiting for the place that i belong

I'm a satellite
I'm a satellite
I'm on the outside lookin' in
They don't know just where i've been
I'm a satellite
Unless you let me in

These indigo nights
It's the life that i've been livin'
But when the sun comes up
That's when the shadows grow
They think they got it all
They don't know what they're missin'
I've got so much to give
But i'm keepin' it close

These days are slow
But the night moves way too fast
Need to know you want me here
Before i ask

I'm a satellite
I'm a satellite
I'm on the outside lookin' in
They don't know just where i've been
I'm a satellite
Unless you let me in

Guess i gotta be content with
Playin' in the darkness
A lovely place to hide
But hide and seek is only fun if
If somebody's lookin'
And nobody's got the time

Or maybe i'm too quick to pass the blame
Maybe i should ask someone to play

I'm a satellite
I'm a satellite
I'm on the outside lookin' in
They don't know just where i've been
I'm a satellite

I'm a satellite
I'm a satellite
I can make it on my own
The falling star of a one man show
I'm a satellite

I'm a satellite
I'm a satellite

I'm on the outside lookin' in
Want you to know just where i've been

Don't wanna be a satellite
So please let me in
