

Gabe Lopez, One Day

Like a frightened child you did run and hide, you ran from love, you ran from feelings inside, its obvious what didnt cross your mind, but i can tell you this its just a matter of time.

chorus:

one day you will see,
one day you and me.

i watched you run, realizing your fears, i watched you come undone, i watched your flood of tears, i really wanted to hold you and say, forget the blame, forget the pain its gonna be okay.

ill wait til you run to return, i guarantee this fire will burn.

you will see you and me, i will wait until that day, i believe were meant to be,
one day
