

Gabrielle, Give Me More Time

Right at this moment
You're feeling insecure
I don't want to hurt you baby
You've heard it all before
Your eyes reach out and say
Don't wanna be hurt again
Give up yourself to me
I'll ease away your fears
You're afraid to test new waters
With me you won't feel cold
I'm here to comfort you
I'm here to see you through
I'm here for you to hold
(Because) I'm going nowhere
If you need someone to hold you
I'll be right here
Oh no I'm going nowhere
If you need someone to hold you
I'll be right here
Love and affection I can tell that's what you need
Tender loving care
You'll get those things from me
I've got so much to give you
I'll give it all to you
No need to worry babe
I want to cherish you (just want to cherish you) and love you a lifetime (love you a lifetime)
What I need to know is (know is)
Will you be mine
No need to feel so lonely
'Cos darkness turns to light
Just know I'll be right here
To hold you tight
Love and affection
I can tell that's what you need
Tender loving care
You'll get those things from me
