

Gabrielle, Should i stay

Here I am, waiting for a sign, I never seem to know if you want me in your life, where do I stand I just don't know

I never feel I know you

'cause you blow hot and you blow cold, it seems I've grown attached though we're not the perfect match

I just can't explain

(chorus: should I stay should I go could I ever really stand to let you go can you now find the right words to say that maybe I'm getting in your way)

I feel your warmth, got me wanting more, you've left the door half open

I'm in two minds to explore, but then again am I being honest, being truthful to myself, can I see my life without you could I be with someone else it seems I've grown attached, though we're not the perfect match

I just can't explain

(chorus: should I stay, should I go, could I ever really stand to let you go can you not find the right words to say that maybe I'm getting in your way)

should I stay, should I go

I really think it's time that you should let me know, can you not find the right words to say that maybe I'm getting in your way) it seems I've grown attached

(chorus)
