

Gabrielle, There She Goes

Her eyes tell a story
That she's been through many wars
And the lines that are upon her face
Tell you she can't take no more
A shadow of her former self
That is all I see
And the beauty that she once possessed
Is now only skin deep
Leading a lonely life
And she doesn't know where she's going, she just doesn't know
She says that now is the time
But she doesn't realise
That the years have passed her by
There she goes
She's not the girl that I once used to know
There she goes
What happened to the girl with the golden glow
Na na na na na na na
Na na na na na na
Na na na na na na na na
Na na na
Make no plans
For tomorrow
She's living for today
She feels there is no future
And that's a crying shame
She's not the girl I used to know
Her eyes no longer shine
It's the life that she's been living
She's been through hard times
Leading a lonely life
And she doesn't know where she's going, she just doesn't know
And she says that now is the time
But she doesn't realise
That the years have passed her by
There she goes?
There she goes
She's not the girl that I once used to know
There she goes
What happened to the girl with the golden glow
Na na na na na na na
Na na na na na na
Na na na
