

Gabry Ponte, The Finger (ft. Georgia Ku)

Hit me where it hurts the most
Throw your stones
You'll be looking at the finger
Stick it where the sun don't shine
I got no time
I'll be starin' in the mirror

You're a neat freak
You stay within the lines
And I'm a cannonball
A rebel of the times

Eyes on my body, I'm calling the shots
You say you don't want me
I'm already gone

Hit me where it hurts the most
Throw your stones
You'll be looking at the finger
Stick it where the sun don't shine
I got no time
I'll be starin' in the mirror

'Cause I don't follow
I'm a fighter
Line up and we'll knock you down
A pre-madonna
I bring the drama
Stand up and I'll show you how

Hit me where it hurts the most
Throw your stones
You'll be looking at the finger
Stick it where the sun don't shine
I got no time
I'll be starin' in the mirror

'Cause I don't follow
I'm a fighter
Line up and we'll knock you down
A pre-madonna
I bring the drama
Stand up and I'll show you how

Like a phoenix
High above the flame, yeah
Get your punches in
I'm ready for your game

Scars on my body
Got a smile on my face
You think you can hurt me
You've just been replaced

Hit me where it hurts the most
Throw your stones
I got no time

'Cause I don't follow
Line up and we'll knock you down

A pre-madonna

Hit me where it hurts the most
Throw your stones
I got no time

'Cause I don't follow
Line up and we'll knock you down
A pre-madonna
