==Translation==

&lt;/lyrics&gt;

I just look upon this corrupt city from afar
I hear no sound□ So many headless dolls are laughing

Returning skyward, everything returning to the sky
Even you, as you cry out, return to your place of birth
Your screams, like a flock of small birds entwined in the helix

Everything disappears When these overflowing tears are answered
They flow and fall into my body, till you can hear them breaking

The Kalmia twilight grows hot, until it melts
My laughter
The blinking of sunrise
More gentle than anyone

My slumber is interrupted by the timbre of shattered glass being played
The cold moon cries out A prayer in the final hour---a droplet of rain
A farewell at dawn is too sad for me now
