

Gackt, Redemption

what else can I do besides avenge you?

you told me
live as if you were to die tomorrow
feel as if you were to be reborn now
face as if you were to live forever

I had nothing to lose, nothing truth

make it up

</lyrics>
Your form which returns gently to heaven
What else can I do, besides avenge you?
I watched it for the longest time, until my tears dried up.

The sorrow overflowing from the scar I can't erase
I swore that I would never forget it.

I'll flap my broken wings and
erase it all some day, you'll see,
Until the last bell stops ringing the dirge completes.

You told me to live as if you were to die tomorrow.
Feel as if you were to be reborn now,
Face as if you were to live forever.

Bright red tears traced by a trembling finger,
I had nothing to lose, nothing to lose
It crashes through the dark memories.

The last smile wavered, and disappears,
And the warmth is all that's left.

Your kind and gentle words
can't heal me now,
This body's only dedicated to the never ending fight.

Because everyone returns to heaven, some day,

You'll never need to say goodbye.

Make it up!

I'll flap my broken wings and
erase it all some day, you'll see,
Until the last bell stops ringing
the dirge completes.

Your kind and gentle words
can't heal me now,
This body's only dedicated to the never ending fight.
