

Gadjits, Good Love

Well yesterday I thought that we could be together forever but today I know that it's gonna be stormy weather Told me to pack up my bags and get the hell outta town
I'm lost in indecision, and I'm wearin' a big frown

(chorus)

Did you ever know that I love you Did you ever know that I do
Did you ever know that I miss you and I can't get over you

(x2)

and I know that's no excuse for good love

I used to bitch a lot, cause I could only see you on Sundays
But I'm so alone, and I can't even see you one day
I miss your soft lips and your dark, thick hair
Well I've heard it all before and I know that life's not fair.

(chorus)

Speak to me, B!
