

Gaelic Storm, If Good Times Were Dollars

A piece of fluff, is all that's in my pocket but that's enough to get me by It's ain't so rough when there's nothing to swallow when your head is full of memories Got no credit, but I don't sweat it don't give a damn don't really care cause if good times were dollars
I would be... a millionaire

A little smile, breaks across my face i sit awhile, close my eyes it's not my style to worry bout something when something my be something thats nothing at all got no dough, but you know I don't give a damn don't really care
cause if good times were dollars
I would be... a millionaire

Everybody's in a rush ... got some place to go
But if it's all the same to you I'm going to sit right here and watch the green grass grow

I'm in the bath, lying on my back I do the math on my fingers and toes
I start to laugh cause I got nothing to my name but I've got friends all around the world Got no money, but it's funny
don't give a damn don't really care
