

Gainsae, Backdraft

Easy said as it ever was
Never spoken, never heard
Never attempted, never tried
Never loved or lost
Easy said as it ever was

Silent as is spoken
Percing as is done
Held in regard one whose done
far less for me

You're so easy

Easy said as it ever was
Never spoken, never heard
Never attempted, never tried
Never loved or lost
Easy said as it ever was

Silent as is spoken
Piercing as is done
Held in regard one whose done
far less for me

Open a fire stoke the flame
Fall into the beauty
Consuming in your faith

In all that seems so good
