

Gainsae, One

I see what's inside you, I know what you're hiding
It's far away from me, I cannot believe all the words
That were spoken in anger I'd take it all back
If only I could just have one more chance,
I wouldn't let you down
It's in the warmth that we feel
And I will never let you down

The time has come his will has been done
And I feel that I can give it all back if you only would Just give me one more chance, one more time again
One more time that's all I ask of you

I still know what your feelin' inside
And I know it feels right it can't be changed
But I know I know that you're here
You're in my heart and that's where you'll stay
And that won't change never ever change

The time has come his will has been done
And I feel that I can give it all back if you only would
Just give me one more chance one more time again
One more time that's all I ask of you

I see what's inside you I know what you're hiding
It's far away from me I cannot believe all the words
That were spoken in anger I'd take it all back
If only I could just have one more chance,
I wouldn't let you down
It's in the warmth that we feel
And I will never let you go

The time has come his will has been done
And I feel that I can give it all back if you only would
Just give me one more chance one more time again
One more time that's all I ask of you
his will has been done
But I'd give it all back for Just one more time to dance with you
I want to dance with you that's all I ask of you
