

Galantis & ROZES, Girls on Boys

There were girls on boys /2x red heels on the tables in a champagne blur

it all gets kinda hazy
when you hearts fucked up we were empty bottles we were pushing our luck

and it turned into the longest night of our whole damn lives
had the wildest times
it all started with

girls on boys
girls on girls
and I didn't care

oi got high to forget you
I got high real hard
with a broken heart

no you wouldn't come home so I stayed out hoping I wouldn't see you with someone in the crowd it was all kinda empty so I filled it with rum it was stupidly crazy I was comfortable numb
