

Galneryus, Holding The Broken Wings

Follow the sign of the free
Now I say the word
Feeling of fear fills our mind but I'll keep the faith
War cry are shaking the ground
Now the time to fight
Your heart is beating so fast
Now the time to die

Never ending agony of the human race
I wanna know why the angels are crying

I'm waiting for awake of the world
Praying to bring back the new wings to fly
I'm waiting for awake of the world
Holding the broken wings, I'm calling you
Holding the broken wings, I'm calling

The expiation of the blood
Agony brings the dark
We're trying to end all wars
So we'll keep the faith
Bright of the spark from the sword
That makes me high
Gazing the stars, we decide to fight for freedom now

Never ending agony of the human race
I wanna know why the angels are crying

I'm waiting for awake of the world
Praying to bring back the new wings to fly
I'm waiting for awake of the world
Holding the broken wings, I'm calling you
Holding the broken wings, I'm calling

Never ending agony of the human race
I wanna know why the angels are crying

I'm waiting for awake of the world
Praying to bring back the new wings to fly
I'm waiting for awake of the world
Holding the broken wings, I'm calling you
Holding the broken wings, I'm calling
