Gamma Ray, Master Of Confusion

You try to call me, i'm not at home my mobile's off, can't leave a message And now you're waiting, still I won't show you won't believe what happened to me

And now I'm running like the wind but I won't have much time, I'm sorry once again

No matter where I'm going or anywhere I roam I am the Master of Confusion Maybe you'll see me coming or maybe I just don't I am the Master of Confusion

The label's calling: "boys are you done? the deadline's past, time to deliver" I am so sorry, we're running late some unexpected ghost in the machinery

Again I'm running like the wind now all the made up plans are running out of hand

No matter where I'm going or anywhere I roam I am the Master of Confusion Maybe you'll see me coming or maybe I just don't I am the Master of Confusion

I am chaos, I'm disaster, I am pain Sweet disorder, anarchy, go insane

Whenever I am closing in, your peaceful life goes in the bin Let chaos begin:

No matter where we going or anywhere we roam We are the Masters of Confusion We're like an open fire, a raging thunderstorm We are the Masters of Confusion Masters of Confusion...
