

Gandharvas, Got You Alone

Time for a good bye
Your ride's waiting outside
But I got you alone
Lips are sealed and I never felt my own
So don't ask me why
I brought you inside
Thought I'd let you know -
They're ready down below
And I got you alone
Your skin is peeled and I never wore my own
So don't put on why
I dragged you so high.
Goodbye.
