GangStarr, Lovesick

Verse 1

Strangely enough I've been struck Affected by her smile And yo, her style is worthwhile And knowing that I'm deep like a river I feel I should give her Things that those others can't deliver Contrary to what I had wished It seems that I've been dissed But hey, I don't want to miss this Wonderful opportunity My boys they try schoolin' me But see I know what I want Someone who'll be there for the whole nine This honey is so fine But now she's hung up the line Upset because I told her I'm busy She made like a grizzly And started chewin' my head off Screamin' that I spend more time with friends And also, she said I ruined her weekend I said "i know the stuff we had planned But please understand Right now I'm loungin' with my man" I guess I didn't realize I'd hurt her She said I had the nerve to Just neglect her like that Then she started bringing up past things And she kept asking How come our love isn't lasting I said, "hey baby, please calm down 'cause I'm still around And it's for you that my heart pounds Can I call you later on? You say I treat you wrong? But why you flippin' on me? "

She said something else and then click Left me alone on the phone with the tone And now I'm lovesick

Verse 2

Relationships can grip with the pain Arguments in the crib, in the streets, on the train I'm crazy fed but then still When she ain't there I feel sad, I feel ill Frowning 'cause I'm down in the dumps The other night I took her out So she could shake her rump But after we were there for a few Some girls that I knew Stepped up and asked me to come to A party they were havin' at their house I looked at my girl, and yo, she started walkin' out I said " hey love, just wait for a second And won't you just check it? It's all a part of makin' records Those were just some friends in the business No need to get angry So listen up while I kick this And what about the things we discussed

About havin' trust?
What's all this attitude stuff?
Now hon, you know that I wouldn't play you
But time after time, you let your jealousy sway you
Hey don't you turn your back like that
Come on, this is wack
You're heated up like a thermostat"
Then she stepped off in a whirlwind
And I don't know when
Or if I'm gonna see her again
I coulda sworn she was the right one to pick
But now...man I'm just lovesick
