

Garden Variety, Why

You walked into my life
And I gave you half a chance
I gave you everything because I liked
To watch you dance
You did not treat me right
No you did not treat me fair
You were my only vice
I guess we made a funny pair
So tell me why do you have a hold on me
Tell me why can't you set me free
All my friends told me that I'm just wasting my time
But I could not explain how you captivate my body and my mind
I tried to ignore you yes I tried to let you go
I wrestled with my heart but I never could say no
So tell me why do you have a hold on me
Tell me why can't you set me free
