

Gardenian, The Downfall

Even though it sounds easy you should relate to the fall
My inner words of rage bursting through my head if it is what it seems You should be much closer to the rage that I feel It's glowing Deep down in my mind I see you feel the same as me stay brave

As they always stare right through you They don't notice you Even though they should, you're a quite special guy that's what you think Don't you, but you're nothing!
you mean nothing to me Nothing special at all you are just a loser that sickens us all

You should try to end it all you're confused by your tolerance That's just totally unnecessary right now!
Just end your life

Downfall, Downfall, Downfall End your life now

(repeat chorus)
