

Garnett Silk, Nothing Can Divide Us

You know, baby
I love you very, very much
And I just want you to know that
Theres nothing can divide us
No, no, hey

Nothing can divide us
Nothing separate us
Nothing can divide us
No one can stop me from loving you, oh, no
No one can stop me from loving you

Nothing can divide us
Nothing separate us
Nothing can divide us
No one can stop me from loving you, oh, no
No one can stop me from loving you (No way)

Cause I was born to love you
You were born to love me too
And I cant deny it
Baby, I love you more each minute

When youre not around, Im so empty
All I need is you beside me
There aint no substitute for your company
When my night is dark and I see clearly

Nothing can divide us
Nothing separate us
Nothing can divide us
No one can stop me from loving you, oh, no
No one can stop me from loving you (No way)

Nothing can divide us
Nothing separate us
Nothing can divide us
No one can stop me from loving you
No one can stop me from loving you, hey

Wanna touch me
Strong, strong affection
Oh, what a connection
Words not enough to express this love infatuation

Where true love flying high above
I never knew that I could love like this
Not even a moment with you
I cant afford to miss, oh, you bring me joy
Thank you, woman, for your love and kindness

Nothing can divide us
Nothing separate us
Nothing can divide us
No one can stop me from loving you
No one can stop me from loving you (No, baby)

Nothing can divide us
Nothing separate us
Nothing can divide us
No one can stop me from loving you
No one can stop me from loving you

You know I love you more and more each day

And wherever you are I swear, I wont stray

See, you make me feel so good, baby

You will forever mine (Forever)

Yes, Im your always

Through the nights and through the days
