

Garret, Come Back

Come back
You' re not alone
Try to let me
Guide you along
Every word that
You said
Took me to a much Better place
Come back
I am alone
I want
To have you back home
Every room
I step in is a Storyteller
Of former days
Yeah, I miss your warmth at night
You'll be the sight for my sore eyes
I can wait, but let's not waste our time
'cause when you notice life has passed you by
by this moon,
this afternoon
or are you gonna wake me up with a kiss and no good byes
There's an open path
Forgiveness will show
Step outside now
Do not fear a ghost
The faster my heart beats
The closer you are
To silence the past
And let me prove I was wrong
