

Garrison Starr, Grounded

I've got a new perspective
Way up high
And I've rainbows in my head
In my sky
I need a helicopter
Cuz i don't want to be found
Up here
I'll just fly around

So don't forget me now
Cuz i'm out of your league now
You can't keep me grounded
You can't keep me grounded

I've got a new perspective
In my clouds
And I've felt so helpless
I had to scream aloud
I said I'm such a small being
Compared to everything else
So I don't know everything
At least I know myself
Yeah I know myself

So don't forget me now
I'm out of your league now
You can't keep me grounded
You can't keep me grounded
Grounded
