

Garrison Starr, I Should Have Known

By the way your lips met on mine
You'd been around.
So delicate.. from the moment I saw you
I had to get through
And you were the one.
Take me.. I won't surrender..
A battle for eighteen over me.
Memories.. promises to never die..
Just roll your eyes.
Missin' you, I'm still playin' all these songs
To get along.
And you were the one..
You were the one.
Take me.. I won't surrender..
A battle for eighteen over me.
Can you ever forgive me?
I'm such a fool..
Can you ever forgive me?
I need you.. I need you!
Take me.. I won't surrender..
A battle for eighteen over me.
A battle for eighteen over me..
Over me..
Over me..
