

Garth Brooks, Every Now And Then

i walked down to the park last night warm breeze stirrin' up a soft moonlight and my mind started driftin' to way back when yes, i do think about you...every now and then the other day i saw a car like you used to drive i got a funny feelin' down deep inside and for the breifest moment i felt a smile begin

and i love my life and i'd never trade between what you and me had and the life i've made she's here and she's real but you were too and every once in a while i think about you i heard a song on the radio just yesterday the same one you always asked me to play and when the song was over i wished they'd play it again

cause she's here and she's real but you were too
and every once in a while i think about you

i've been layin' here all night listenin' to the rain talkin' to my heart and tryin' to explain why sometimes i catch myself wondering what might have been yes, i do think about u...every now and then every now and then
