

Gary Allan, From Where I'm Sittin'

Male Country Hits, Vol. 261

Track 3

He asked her to dance
Three songs ago
Now she pulls him closer
As the music slows
The lights are growin' dim
It's just her and him and the band
Funny, I used to love this song
I thought it was our song
But I guess I was wrong
From where I'm sittin'
I can see where I stand

From where I'm sittin'
I can see where I stand
She's got her head on his shoulder
And her heart in his hands
Things are pretty clear
When a fool understands
Lord, from where I'm sittin'
I can see where I stand

I've never seen her dance
Like that before
Don't think I can take
Much of this anymore
He's no longer the stranger
And it looks like I am
I always dreamed
I'd see that look in her eyes
But I never dreamed
It would be for some other guy
And from where I'm sittin'
I can see where I stand

From where I'm sittin'
I can see where I stand
She's got her head on his shoulder
And her heart in his hands
Things are pretty clear
When a fool understands
Lord, from where I'm sittin'
I can see where I stand

Lord, from where I'm sittin'
Yeah, from where I'm sittin'
I can see where I stand

I can see where I stand...
