

Gary Barlow, Fast Car

You've got me thinkin' 'bout tomorrow, although I'm livin' in today, you've got me wishin' I lived in another world, though in my home I wanna stay,

You're tellin' me you understand, but you don't really know now who I am, or what I do,
you're tellin' me we'll work it out, then all you do is kick and scream and shout, what more can I say,

Fast car take me home,
to the place where I can breathe where I feel strong,
fast car take me back,
to the place where I'm free at last,
so free at last,
heh,
yeah eh eh heh, oooh ooh ohh,

Why did I let you come this far, why did I let you tear me down, baby, I should have known it from the start, I didn't, you turned a page without a sound,

You're tellin' me I've got to learn, but you're love has so many twists and turns, I can't find my way,
you're tellin' me it's all a shame,
but now I feel this soul has got no name, and to you t's all a game,

Fast car take me home,
to the place where I can breathe where I feel strong,
fast car take me back,
to the place where I'm free at last,
so free at last,
at last yeah,
oooh hooo,

You're tellin' me it's all a shame,
but now I feel this soul has got no name,
and to you it's all a game,

Fast car take me home,
to the place where I can breathe where I feel strong,
fast car take me back,
to the place where I'm free at last (so free at last baby)

Fast car take me home,
to the place where I can breathe where I feel strong,
fast car take me back,
to the place where I'm free at last,
(fade out)
