

Gary Barlow, Wondering

So there you go again, turning love into a question, you know it's not so hard to say, if this is for real or rejection, don't make me promises don't make me decide, don't beg forgiveness just try harder next time, if you take directions from your heart, I know this love will start,

Don't keep me wondering,
'cos it's hard enough to know,
don't keep me wondering,
if you've turned cold,
we've got to work it out, whatever's wrong we'll make it right, don't keep me wondering if your love,
is worth the fight,

All alone still waiting, yeah, so glad I know that you're worth the chasing, now I understand your reasons, I've never argued or fought with my feelin's,

Don't keep protecting don't keep changing your mind, you use forgiveness as a way to fight time, don't push aside a love you've never tried, try and see this through my eyes,

Don't keep me wondering,
'cos it's hard enough to know,
don't keep me wondering,
if you've turned cold,
we've got to work it out,
whatever's wrong we'll make it right,
don't keep me wondering if your love,
is worth the fight,

I've been wondering if your love'll ever be,
so free, so free,
would you lie lie hi hi,

don't keep me wondering,
you know it's wrong,
yeah, ooh
we've got to work it out, I've been wondering if your love ever be,
so free, so free,
no no no,
noo hoo,
we've got to work it out,
alright,
work it out,
'cos I can't do without you baby, no
