

Gary Cherone, Change My Mind

It's time to break the silence
And take away this pretense
That we can be just friends
And stop dancing, dancing on a fence

So you say you don't love me, anymore
But you know, that ain't true
Girl, no need to lie
Say what you want to
Nothing gonna change my mind

So where did our love go?
You won't tell me, I still know
'Cause wherever the wind blows
It will always be, right under our noses

So you say you don't love me, anymore
But you know, that ain't true
Girl, no need to lie
Say what you want to
Nothing gonna change my mind
So you don't think about me, like before
But you know, that ain't true
Girl, look in my eyes
I just can't believe it
Nothing gonna change my mind

Well you don't think about,
You don't think about me girl
I can't believe it
Say you don't love me anymore
Nothing gonna change my mind
