

Gary Delz Power Trio, Stranger

Hello pretty stranger can I sit with you awhile I'm kinda tired and lonesome seems like I been ten thousand miles just wanta talk to you awhile

You know I'm sure where I'm goin' but I can tell you where I've been I guess it really doesn't matter
'cause I'm just lookin' for a friend I might not pass this way again

Got no time now for thinkin'

got no time to say goodbye I got time for one more drink babe and I got time to say goodbye Yes I can make it if I try

It's gettin' late, guess I'll be goin'
I hope I didn't bring you down I could come up for a minute if you don't mind me hangin' round
'cause I'm a stranger here in town yeah I'm a stranger in the town yeah I'm a stranger here in town
