

Gary Glitter, Oh, What A Fool I Have Been

Oh what a fool I've been you changed this beggar to a king!
But what good is a crown now the king is a clown?
Since the day you went away I lost everything

Oh what a fool I am cause I held the world in my hands but I was too smart to give into my heart oh what a fool I have been

oh what a fool I have been you gave me the world on a string but I was too proud and had my head in the clouds oh what a fool I have been

But if you need me I'm not far away I know you'll call me when it rains for you someday

Oh what a fool I have been I'll do anything just to win What I tried to find was right there all the time

Oh what a fool I have been

what a fool, oh what a fool I have been what a fool, oh what a fool I have been
what a fool, oh what a fool I have been
what a fool, oh what a fool I have been
