

Gary Lewis & The Playboys, Little Miss Go-Go

She goes downtown in a pair of old, blue jeans,
She's the kind of girl who know what "the in crowd" means,
Little miss go-go, little miss go-go,
Ooh, well, look at her go,
Yeah, look at her go.
She heads for the beach with the radio on full blast,
She skis with ease down a snow filled mountain pass,
Little miss go-go, little miss go-go,
Ooh, well, look at her go,
Oh, look at her go.
She can find her fun most anyplace,
Stayin' at home or goin' to a hot rod race.
The guys are standin' in line to take her out,
She knows what to do when the band plays "Twist And Shout",
Little miss go-go, little miss go-go,
Ooh, well, look at her go,
Yeah, look at her go.
She can find her fun most anyplace,
Stayin' at home or goin' to a hot rod race.
The guys are standin' in line to take her out,
She knows what to do when the band plays "Twist And Shout",
Little miss go-go, little miss go-go,
Ooh, well, look at her go,
Well, look at her go.
